

THE UNIVERSITY OF
WESTERN AUSTRALIA

GENERAL MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

BETWEEN

THE UNIVERSITY OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA

AND

DIPONEGORO UNIVERSITY

The University of Western Australia and Diponegoro University seek to enhance relations between the two universities by developing academic interchange in research and other activities related to studies on Clostridium difficile.

Within the framework of the regulations applying in each university, and subject to the availability of resources, the following activities will be encouraged:

- joint research activities
- joint publications
- academic meetings
- exchange of academic materials and information

This agreement shall form the basis of consensus for the parties to examine the feasibility of this cooperation.

The specific areas and details of cooperation within the framework of this agreement shall be discussed and agreed upon in writing by the appropriate authority of each university, prior to the initiation of any particular activity.

This agreement shall not create a legal relationship between the parties, and the parties shall not be legally bound until and unless a definitive agreement(s) for a particular activity has been negotiated and duly executed by the authorised representatives of The University of Western Australia and Diponegoro University.

This agreement shall become effective from the date of the last signature and remain in force for a period of five (5) years with the understanding that it may be terminated by either party giving six months' notice to the other party in writing. It may be extended by mutual consent of the two universities, or amended by the exchange of letters.

At The University of Western Australia, the administration of this agreement is vested in the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research), and at Diponegoro University in the hands of Vice Rector for Collaboration and Development.
